

LIKLIK, LIKLIK TOK

OCTOBER 2018

Set aside the dates: 2019 Bung in St. Louis July 5 and 6 Registration materials coming soon

Help Add Interest and Excitement to future issues of Liklik Tok

Greetings one and all. This brief edition of Liklik Tok comes to remind you that next year's PNGMS Bung is set for July 5 and 6 in St. Louis. Registration materials will be on their way to you soon.

The second purpose of this "Liklik" Liklik Tok is to offer you all the opportunity to contribute to future issues of Liklik Tok. Up until now the primary function of Liklik Tok has been to inform members of the Papua New Guinea Mission Society (PNGMS) about recent projects of our association under way in Enga as a part of our continuing support of the Gutnius Lutheran Church of PNG (GLCPNG). Please consider this note as your invitation to be part of expanding that purpose to sharing information about former missionaries to the GLC – memories and recent personal ministries.

Please consider sending an article to the editor of Liklik Tok, Todd Luedtke, at tluedtkepng@gmail.com - possibly including one or two pictures. What was your most memorable experience in PNG? What has been going on in your life since you left PNG? How has your time in PNG affected your life and ministry and that of your family? If you are a child of a former missionary to PNG, how has your personal and family experience there affected your life and faith? My son Andrew wrote an intriguing article for the last issue of Liklik Tok, and I am sure that articles from former missionaries to the GLC (and or their children) will capture the interest of our readership. Please send us something to share.

Interested in creating a design for the upcoming Bung in 2018? Your Board is working on the theme of "water" for the Bung, and we could use your input.
